Project Name	Corporate Employee Attrition Analysis

The most crucial component of every corporation is its workforce. Successful employees meet deadlines, generate revenue, and enhance the brand through satisfying encounters with clients.

Employee attrition is a significant expense to an organisation, and in many cases, the Human Resources department's top priority is to foresee such attritions. Your goal in solving this problem is to forecast an organization's employee attrition rate

Iam	Iam trying to	But	Because	Which makes me feel
YESWANTH J R	Increasing employee satisfaction	The working hours are more	Inadequate employee for doing projects	Helplessness
VIMALESHWARAN V	Hike in salary	Profit is less	Lack of project	Frustration
THANGADURAI S	Recognize employees contribution	Conflict between employees	No project to prove others performance	Frustration

SAVIO MARIA SANTHOSH J	Medical beneficials	Insufficient finance required	No new projects arrived to the company	Emptiness
